

HANS SIGRIST SYMPOSIUM

SUSTAINABLY PRODUCED FOOD OF ANIMAL ORIGIN

Friday, November 30, 2018

UNIVERSITY OF BERN, UNI-S BUILDING, Room A-003

Schanzeneckstrasse 1, 3012 Bern

Free Admission!

Scientific Program

- 14:00 Prof. Dr. Norbert Trautmann (President, Hans Sigrist Foundation, University of Bern)
Opening Remarks on behalf of the Hans Sigrist Foundation Board
- 14:05 Prof. Dr. Rupert Bruckmaier (Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Bern)
Introduction
- 14:15 Prof. Dr. Marina von Keyserlingk (The University of British Columbia, Canada)
Sustainable Food Animal Production: Providing a Good Life for Farm Animals
- 15:00 Prof. Dr. John Scott Radcliffe (Purdue University, Indiana, USA)
A Sustainable Environmental Footprint of Animal Agriculture
- 15:30 Coffee Break
- 16:00 Dr. Andrea Rosati (European Federation of Animal Science, Rome, Italy)
Animal-Derived Food Production: Quo vadis?
- 16:30 Dr. Josef Gross (Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Bern)
Sustainability: Consumer Expectations and Implementation in Modern Livestock Farming
- 16:55 Dr. Henri Rueff (Faculty of Science, University of Bern)
Risks and Livelihood of Pastoral Nomadism in Resource Scarce Areas: Implications for Sustainable Development Goals
- 17:20 Prof. Dr. Matthias Erb (Faculty of Science, University of Bern)
Impact of Plant Secondary Metabolites on Food Chain Health
- 17:45 Closing Remarks

Sponsored by the Hans Sigrist Foundation
Organized by Prof. Dr. Rupert Bruckmaier
Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Bern

u^b

UNIVERSITÄT
BERN